“Berlin Wine”

Berlin wine rarities

Wine has been produced before the gates of Berlin for over 800 years.

This occurred above all under the protection of the Margrave of Brandenburg's rulers and bishops. From the 15th Century, wine production received a significant boost from the House of Hohenzollern's prince-electors originating from Franconia. In this context, many papal elector vineyards emerged, and from that point on, märkisch wine became firmly established on table of every papal elector.

Our wines are among the northern-most quality wines in Germany, growing on pure sandy soils on the Wachtelberg, and are produced and bottled in own cellars of the wine estate of Dr. Lindicke in Werder near Berlin.

These wines excel in their fine, pleasant acidity, as well as their fresh, fruity aromas.

We receive only a few bottles per year of these rarities. So don't be upset if a certain type of wine is sold out.
